Deans Recent Alumni Fellows 2023-2024

Deadline: Rolling Deadline (at the end of each quarter)

This fellowship aims at easing the transition from graduate school into full-time careers either in academia or other industries. While the fellowship is unpaid, a recipient of this fellowship will receive access to resources that will pay immense dividends going forward and was developed in consultation with young professionals and alumni to provide resources they wished they had access to while in graduate school.

Award Amount
This fellowship is unpaid; however applicants will receive access to numerous career development opportunities and resources through their participation. Full opportunities detail can be found here: https://grad.uci.edu/fellowships/graduate-deans-recent-alumni-fellowship-i/

Eligibility Criteria
● Students must be matriculating between March of 2023 and September of 2024, have limited or no immediate job prospects, and indicate the need for a UCI affiliation.
● The benefits and opportunities provided in this program are being provided through special arrangement with various departments and agencies throughout the campus. You must immediately notify our office of the acceptance of any full-time position elsewhere to ensure compliance with our existing contracts to provide these services.
● No Citizenship requirement.

This program is offered by a strong partnership among the Graduate Division, Office of Information Technology, Beall Applied Innovation, Division of Continuing Education, Division of Career Pathways, UCI Libraries, the Provost’s Office, and numerous supportive individuals all over campus.

Apply
Submit an application here (you will need to sign in with your UCNetID). Be prepared to:
● provide answers to graduation and employment questions
● and a response explaining: “why you need this fellowship and how you would plan to use it.”
